UTRID does not and shall not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion (creed), gender, gender expression, age, national origin (ancestry), disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or military status, in any of its activities or operations.

This workshop is designed for both interpreters and members of the legal community to better understand how ASL interpreters work in the courtroom, the ethics of interpreting in the courtroom and why CDI's are important. We will discuss all aspects of interpreting in the courtroom and why it's not a scary idea.

UTRID is an Approved RID CMP Sponsor for Continuing Education Activities. This PS program is offered for .2 CEUs at the Little to None Content Knowledge Level for practicing interpreters.
